I would like to express my need for a Tier 5 on unemployment. I am a single mother of a 2 year old and every single day I have sent my resume to all of the positions in the paper yet have not received one single call. My resume is impressive as my experience is extensive in Bookkeeping. The reason I was laid off was because they were making cuts and the Project Manager would be taking over the Bookkeeping to allow the company to save because they were not doing well. It is extremely upsetting that as a parent... in this world we are in, I cannot find a job. I am scared as my unemployment ran out and currently there is no tier 5 Unemployment. Help!!!!
